IDB Staff Association Gallery

Ariane Hafizi passed away in 2015 from breast cancer at the age of 34. Her mother Carmen gathered 23 of her works for "Light Arrow," which will be on view at IDB Staff Association Art Gallery through Oct. 30. Born in Boulder, Colorado, Hafizi received a BFA in 2004 at Parsons School of Design and worked prolifically in her Brooklyn studio until her passing. She garnered the attention of Spanish art critic Jose Ignacio Abeijon Giraldez, who was "struck by the force of these works [...] once I laid my hands on them." He added that he "felt a great intensity of the sort evoked only by true works of art." On Tuesday, Oct. 29, I will be moderating a panel discussion with Hafizi's mother Carmen and friend Oliver about
